About Event

Wrap up Day 1 of SFTechWeek in style, on the rooftop at Club 345.

No lanyards, panels, or pitch decks.

Everybody's shipping AI demos. Almost nobody's running them in production. This room is for the almost-nobodies.

We're bringing together 100 pro developers, AI founders, and technical leaders who are past the prototype phase and deep in the hard parts: reliability, observability, cost, trust. If you've dealt with AI systems that work in staging but fail in prod, you'll know the people here.
